East to West Moving To Russia Lyrics:

(Verse 1)

I'm packing my bags, ready for the unknown.
Leaving behind all I ever known.
Heading east to a land of beauty and history,
A new adventure awaits, just you and me.
We are moving to Russia with excitement and glee
Exploring the unknown, setting our spirits free.

(Chorus)

Oh, Russia, Russia, a land so grand,
With endless wonders to explore and understand,
From the Kremlin's towers to the Siberian snow,
We'll make a new home in this land we love so.

(Verse 2)

We'll dance to balalaikas and drink vodka with friends,
Explore the markets and try cuisine that never ends,
We'll take the Trans-Siberian Railway to see the land,
From Moscow to Vladivostok, a journey so grand.

(Chorus)

Oh, Russia, Russia, a land so wide,
With stunning landscapes and a rich cultural pride,
From the Hermitage Museum to the Bolshoi Ballet,
We'll embrace this new life, come what may.

(Bridge)

Though the language may be new and the winters may be cold,
We'll find our place in this country so bold,
With open hearts and minds, we'll make a new start,
In a land of tradition and art.

(Chorus)

Oh, Russia, Russia, a land so vast,
With a history and beauty that will always last,
We'll build a new life and create memories to treasure,
In a country that will forever be our pleasure.

(Outro)

So here's to Russia, our new home and land,
A place of wonder and adventure so grand,
We'll explore, learn, and love with all our might,
And make a new life in this land of delight.
